PROGRAM INFORMATION

The mission of Northern Arizona University Social Work Program, grounded in the history, purpose, and values of the profession, is to educate competent generalist social workers for practice with diverse populations and multi-level social systems in local, regional and global contexts. The Social Work Program is an accredited professional program where you can earn the professional designation of BSW or Bachelor of Social Work. You are required to apply to the Social Work Program after completing the freshman year. Please visit the Department of Sociology and Social Work web page for online application. The web page and contact information is noted below.

Students are strongly encouraged to consult with a Social Work faculty each semester in choosing appropriate courses. Some required courses for this degree might be used to meet additional requirements for the degree. Consult with your faculty advisor to determine which courses are eligible. You are required to complete 12 units of Field Placement (SW 408) to complete this degree. Please consult a Social Work faculty advisor for details and planning of this degree.

Only one grade of "D" is allowed in the professional core courses. See catalog for a complete list of the professional core courses for the Bachelor of Social Work degree.
