

Better Luck Tomorrow

Date: April 25th 2005

Time: 7:00 p.m

SBS (Bldg 65)
Room 110 FREE

For info: 523-9237 or Jeff.Berglund@nau.edu

"Better Luck Tomorrow" is a morality tale about a group of honor students who become involved in petty crime, violence, drug use and excess in a frantic pursuit of self-discovery, recognition and public adulation, while at the same time maintaining their 'A' averages. The cautionary tale is also a harsh and unapologetic examination of the insecurity and volatility of today's youth. As the lead characters become involved in more serious crimes, the film examines how American culture glorifies the gangster lifestyle. The film observes how a small sequence of events - beginning with a snide article in the school newspaper - can permanently transform a student's innocence to cynicism.

a film series sponsored by The Ethnic Studies Program

For information on the Ethnic Studies Minor, visit: <http://www4.nau.edu/ethnicstudies>
or contact the Director of Ethnic Studies,
Dr. Geeta Chowdhry, at 523-9207
or Geeta.Chowdhry@nau.edu

NORTHERN ARIZONA
UNIVERSITY