

SHEL 4 Conference Program

• Thursday, September 29

Registration

1:00pm to 4:00pm

Riles Building, 2nd Floor

• Friday, September 30

Continental Breakfast

7:00am to 8:00am

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

Philology (8am-10am; Communication Building, Room 304) Henry Machyn's English (part 2) Richard W. Bailey (The University of Michigan) The Language of 18th Century Women in Robert Munford's Plays Susan Garzon (Oklahoma State University) The Philological Renaissance of Noah Webster and Emily Dickinson Cynthia Hallen (Brigham Young University) The "Correct Speech" Industry Elocution, Historical Linguistics and Language Change Ray Hickey (Essen University)	Corpus Linguistics (8am-10am; Communication Building, Room 306) The Newcastle Electronic Corpus of Tyneside English: A Resource for the Analysis of Variation and Change in a 20th-Century English Dialect Joan Beal (University of Sheffield) Examining Diachronic Shifts with Phrasal Verbs: Data from a New 37 Million Word Corpus of English Mark Davies (Brigham Young University) Making Use of Historical Texts on the Internet for Lexical Studies Mark Kaunisto (University of Tampere) Coinage: The Derivation and Naturalization of Economic Borrowings in Late Medieval and Early Modern English Chris Palmer (University of Michigan)
--	--

Refreshments

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

Syntax (1030am-Noon; Communication Building, Room 304) The Status of Middle English Subjunctive Complements after French Loans: Evidence from the Middle English Compendium Mariana Bahtchevanova (Arizona State University)	Metrics 1 (1030am-Noon; Communication Building, Room 306) Ubbe dubbede him to knith': The Scansion of Havelok and Middle English -es, -eth, and -ed(e) Christina Fitzgerald (University of Toledo) Terasawais Law and Old English Metrical Change
---	--

Non-Subject Gaps in the Old English to-Infinitive	R.D. Fulk (Indiana University)
Marjorie Pak (University of Pennsylvania)	Beowulf: Fidelity in Versification
But the Houses did not Like us: The End of the English Impersonal Construction	Jennifer Tran (UCLA)
Graeme Trousdale (University of Edinburgh)

Lunch (on your own)

Metrics 2 (1pm-3pm; Communication Building, Room 304) Metrical Evidence: Did Chaucer Translate "The Romaunt of the Rose"? Charles Li (Central Washington University) The Metrical and Linguistic Lineage of the ME Alliterative Long Line Donka Minkova (UCLA) An Unnoticed Constraint on the A-verse in Middle English Alliterative Verse Geoffrey Russom (Brown University)	Grammaticalization (1pm-3pm; Communication Building, Room 306) Anytime: The Grammaticalization of a Subordinator Laurel Brinton (University of British Columbia) Arrested Grammaticalization: A Diachronic Analysis of Start Lynn Sims (Arizona State University) The lady was al demonyak: Historical Aspects of Adverbial ALL Elizabeth Traugott (Stanford University) and Isabelle Buchstaller (Stanford University)
--	--

Refreshments

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

Posing Historical Problems (330pm-530pm; Communication Building, Room 304) Britons in Anglo-Saxon England: Linguistic and Historical Arguments for Survival James Berry (Arizona State University) Ælfric in Iceland Kari Ellen Gade (Indiana University) Manuscripts as Sources for Linguistic Research: A Methodological Case Study Based on the Mirror of Lights Peter Grund (University of Michigan) Language Status and Language Change William Kretschmar (University of Georgia)	Metrics 3 (330pm-5pm; Communication Building, Room 306) Middle English Suprasegmentals in the Harley Lyrics Tom Cable (The University of Texas at Austin) Breaking the Code: Isolating Versification Patterns in the Morte Arthure through computerized analysis John Carlson (University of Virginia) "Foted like a plane"?: Foot-based Analyses of John Skelton's Meter Thomas O'Donnell (UCLA)
---	--

President's Reception

6:00pm to 7:30pm

Old Main Museum

Saturday, October 1

SHEL 5 Organizational Meeting

7:00am to 8:00am

Riles Building, Conference Room, 2nd Floor

Continental Breakfast

7:00am to 8:00am

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

Sound change (8am-1030am; Communication Building, Room 304) Palatalization of Old English and Old Frisian Stephen Laker (Leiden University) The Underlying Form of Syllabic Consonants in Old English: The Existence of Schwa Toshihiro Oda (Fukuoka University) Word Frequency, Orm, and Vowels before Homorganic Clusters Betty Phillips (Indiana State University) The Apparent Loss and Re-Emergence of [h] in English Julia Schlüter (University of Paderborn) The Case of "Cheese" and the Meaning of "ie" David White	Pedagogy (8am-1030am; Communication Building, Room 306) Essential Linguistics for the History of the English Language Mary Blockley (University of Texas at Austin) Multimedia Resources for Teaching Alternative Histories of English Felicia Jean Steele (The College of New Jersey) Teaching HEL in a Japanese Context: Proposal for an Approach to Teaching HEL via Nursery Rhymes Akinobu Tani (Hyogo University of Teacher Education) The English Language: A History Elly van Gelderen (Arizona State University)
---	---

Refreshments

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

Plenary 11:00am-12:00pm Liberal Arts Building, Room 135	Triggering Events William labov University of Pennsylvania
---	--

Lunch (On your own)

Word histories (2pm-330pm; Communication Building, Room 304) Brodingnagian Appetites and Lilliputian Ambitions: Jonathan Swift's Contributions to 21st Century English Elizabeth Coggshall (North Carolina State University) Etymology, Grammar, and the Germanic View of Humanities: The Case of English "wife" Anatoly Liberman (University of Minnesota) A Brief History of Him, Hem, Them, and Em Stephanie Schlitz (Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania)	North American Englishes (2pm-330pm; Communication Building, Room 306) Progressive Colonial English? The modalities of "may" vs. "can" in Early Canadian English Stefan Dollinger (Vienna University) English/French Bilingualism in 19th Century Louisiana: A Social Network Analysis Connie Eble (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill) A History of American English as a Postcolonial Variety: the "Dynamic Model" applied Edgar Schneider (University of Regensburg)
--	---

Refreshments

Riles Building, Reception Area, 2nd Floor

New Englishes (4pm-530pm; Communication Building, Room 304) Quotative "be like" in American English: Ephemeral or Here to Stay? Federica Barbieri (Northern Arizona University) Picker-uppers and Putter-downers: Nominalizations of Verb-particle Constructions in English Don Chapman (Brigham Young University) I am not knowing if she has come here yesterday: The Tense-Aspect System in Registers of Indian English Chandrika Rogers (Western Carolina University)	Corpus Linguistics and Syntax (4pm-530pm; Communication Building, Room 306) Subjunctive Triggers in British and American Newspapers: A Diachronic Perspective Bill Crawford (Northern Arizona University) Complements of Consent: a Case Study on Variation and Change in Complement Selection in Recent Centuries Juhani Rudanko (University of Tampere) The information-statuses of Old English left dislocations Elizabeth Traugott (Stanford University) and Susan Pintzuk (University of York)
--	--

Banquet

7:00pm

Zane Grey Ballroom

Weatherford Hotel