Application for Undergraduate Admission

The easiest way to apply is online at nau.edu/admissions. You can also mail this application along with a $25 non-refundable application fee (a U.S. check or money order made payable to NAU) to: Northern Arizona University, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, PO Box 4084, Flagstaff, AZ 86011-4084. If you need assistance with the application, call 928-523-5511 or 888-628-2968, or e-mail undergraduate.admissions@nau.edu.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Read all instructions carefully.
- Type or print legibly in ink.
- Complete all applicable information and sign the application. An incomplete application will delay the decision process.
- Please include a non-refundable admission application fee of $25. Write your name and address on the check or money order. Do not send cash.
- This application is for U.S. students only. For an international (non-immigrant) application, go to nau.edu/cie or call 928-523-2409.
- Faxed materials cannot be accepted as official documents.
- Students whose academic record may have been impacted by a documented disability are encouraged to contact Disability Resources at 928-523-8773.

APPLICATION PRIORITY DATES

Fall semester:	March 1
Spring semester:	December 1
Summer:	May 1

All students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. Students who apply early receive consideration for scholarships. We will continue to accept applications as long as space is available.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Completed and signed undergraduate application.
- $25 non-refundable application fee (a U.S. check or money order made payable to NAU).
- An official high school transcript sent directly from the school to NAU, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, PO Box 4084, Flagstaff, AZ 86011-4084. If your school uses Docufide, we can accept your transcript electronically. If you have completed an associate's degree, the Arizona General Education Curriculum (AGEC), or the California Inter-segmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC), you do not need to submit a high school transcript.
- Official transcripts from all colleges attended in a sealed envelope sent to NAU, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, PO Box 4084, Flagstaff, AZ 86011-4084.
- ACT and/or SAT I scores. You should indicate NAU as a score recipient when you register for either test. (Please note: The essay portion of either the ACT or SAT I will not be considered in the admission decision process.) NAU ACT code: 0086; NAU SAT I code: 4006. Test scores posted to your official high school transcript are accepted.

FRESHMAN ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

You are a freshman if you will/have graduated from high school or earn/ed your General Equivalency Diploma (GED), and have earned less than 12 college transfer credits after high school by the time you enroll at Northern Arizona University.

ARIZONA RESIDENTS:

Arizona residents will be offered admission if they meet the following: 3.0 or higher core GPA* (on a 4.0 scale) or top 50 percent class rank and have no deficiencies in the required college preparatory courses (on following page). Each core subject area must be a minimum of 2.0.

Arizona residents will be considered for admission if they meet the following: 2.5–2.9 core GPA* (on a 4.0 scale) or a top 50 percent class rank, and have no more than one deficiency in any two subject areas in the required college preparatory courses (on following page). Students with a combination of a math and a lab science deficiency are not admissible. Each core subject area must be a minimum of 2.0.

NON-RESIDENTS:

Non-resident students will be offered admission if they meet the following: 3.0 or higher core GPA* (on a 4.0 scale) or top 25 percent class rank and no deficiencies in the required college preparatory courses (on following page). Each core subject area must be a minimum of 2.0.

Non-resident students will be considered for admission based on individual circumstances and/or space availability if they meet the following: 2.5–2.9 core GPA* (on a 4.0 scale) or top 50 percent class rank and have no more than one deficiency in any two subject areas in the required college preparatory courses (on following page). Students with a combination of a math and a lab science deficiency are not admissible. Each core subject area must be a minimum of 2.0.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY (HIGH SCHOOL) COURSES:

- 4 years of college preparatory English
- 4 years of math, including Algebra I and II, Geometry, and any advanced math course for which Algebra II is a prerequisite
- 3 years of laboratory science – one in three of the four areas of biology, chemistry, physics and earth science
- 2 years of social science – one year must be American History

Home school applicants must meet aptitude requirements through ACT or SAT I composite test scores. ACT score of 22 (Arizona resident) or 24 (non-resident) or SAT I score of 1040 (Arizona resident) or 1110 (non-resident). Please note: only the math and verbal portions of the SAT I will be used when processing test scores for admissions.

GED applicants must submit an official score report from the applicable state department of education and must have a minimum composite score of 50.

* Core GPA is calculated using only the 16 required college preparatory courses listed above.

TRANSFER STUDENT ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

You are a transfer student if you have earned more than 12 college credit hours after graduating from high school or since earning your General Equivalency Diploma (GED).

ARIZONA RESIDENTS:

Arizona residents will be offered admission if they have completed an associate's degree, the Arizona General Education Curriculum (AGEC), or the California Inter-segmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) with a 2.0 or higher GPA.

Arizona residents will also be offered admission if they have a 2.5 or higher GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in at least 24 transferable academic college credits and completion of all required college preparatory courses (listed at right).

Arizona residents will be considered for admission if they have a 2.0 or higher GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in at least 24 transferable academic college credits and have no more than one deficiency in any two subject areas in the required college preparatory courses (listed at right). Students with a combination of a math and a lab science deficiency are not admissible.

NON-RESIDENTS:

Non-resident transfer students will be offered admission if they have completed an associate's degree, the AGECE, or the IGETC with a GPA of 2.0 or higher.

Non-residents will also be offered admission if they have a 2.5 or higher GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in at least 24 transferable academic college credits and if they have completed all the required college preparatory courses (listed at right).

Non-resident transfer students will be considered for admission based on individual circumstances and/or space availability if they have a 2.0 or higher GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in at least 24 transferable academic college credits and have no more than one deficiency in any two subject areas in the required college preparatory courses (listed below). Students with a combination of a math and a lab science deficiency are not admissible.

PLEASE NOTE:

Transfer students who are 21 years of age or younger or have not completed an associate's degree, the AGECE, or the California IGETC are offered admission based on both their college and high school records and the grades received. These students need a minimum of a 2.0 GPA in each of the required college preparatory courses (listed below) and an overall cumulative 2.0 GPA in their college course work to be offered admission.

Post baccalaureate second-degree seeking applicants must provide an official transcript indicating the awarding of your degree. Send it to Northern Arizona University, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, PO Box 4084, Flagstaff, AZ 86011-4084.
